

Consecration of a Portable Altar

Gregory R. Barnes

August 11, 2021

Preparation

Overview

1. A portable altar may be consecrated at any time.
2. After the consecration, Mass is celebrated over the consecrated altar. This Mass may be said by the consecrating bishop or be a priest delegated by him.¹

Setup

1. The stone to be consecrated is placed on a table which is covered by a white cloth.²
2. On the same table, or on another, covered by a white cloth:
 - (a) One small vessel of holy water with aspergillum.
 - (b) One small vessel with water to be consecrated.
 - (c) One small vessel with the Oil of the Catechumens.
 - (d) One small vessel with Chrism.
 - (e) Small quantity of ash in a metal dish.
 - (f) Small quantity of salt in a metal dish.
 - (g) Small quantity of wine in an ampulla.

Preparation of the Bishop

If a public ceremony, the Bishop is vested in amice, alb, cincture, stole, white cope and linen miter. If a private ceremony, the Bishop is vested in a white stole over his rochet and the simple miter.

The Bishop washes his hands³ before vesting.

¹Menghini, p. 315, ¶ 4. Therefore it is not necessary that the Bishop himself fulfill the rubric jejuno tamen stomacho, as is in the Pontificale.

²The purpose of this cloth is to absorb any oil that may flow from the stone.

³Menghini, p. 317, ¶ 9

Before the altar

1. B before the altar says: Deus onnipoténtem...
2. With bared head (detecto capite⁴), B genuflects before the altar to be consecrated, saying: Dues, in adjutórium meum inténde. While B rises, the choir says: Dómine, ad adjuvándum me festína. Without miter, B says: Glória Patri..., choir responding.
3. This responsory is said three times, each time in a higher voice.

4. B reads: Omnípotens, sempitérne Deus...

Blessing the Water

Exorcism of the Salt and the Water

B with miter and standing in the same place says Exorcizo te, creatura salis.... B then without miter reads the versicles and the oration. B receives the miter for the exorcism of the water, then removes it for the versicles and the oration, as before.

Blessing of the Ashes

1. Without miter, B, standing in the same place, blesses the ashes.
2. B takes the salt and mixes it with the ashes in the form of a cross saying: Commíxtio salis, et cíneris páriter fiat. Pa ✠ tris, et Fí ✠ lii, et Spíritus ✠ Sancti. R. Amen.
3. Taking a handful of the salt and ashes, B sprinkles the mixture three times into the water saying: Commíxtio salis, cíneris, et aquae páriter fiat. Pa ✠ tris, et Fí ✠ lii, et Spíritus ✠ Sancti. R. Amen.

Blessing of the Wine

1. Without miter, B, standing in the same place, blesses the wine.

⁴*Pontificale Romanum* (1862), p. 174

2. B takes the wine and pours it into the water in the form of a cross saying: Commixtio vini, salis, cineris et aquae páriter fiat. Pa ✠ tris, et Fí ✠ lii, et Spíritus ✠ Sancti. R. Amen.
3. Without miter B reads the oration: Omnípotens sempitérne Deus...

Signing the Stone

Signing with the water

1. With miter, B takes the water with the thumb of his right hand and makes crosses in the middle of the stone saying: Sancti ✠ ficétur, et conse ✠ crétur haec tábula, making signs of the cross in the usual manner at In nómine Pa ✠ tris, et Fí ✠ lii, et Spíritus ✠ Sancti. Pax tibi.
2. This signing is repeated in each corner of the altar, first on the Gospel side, back, then on the Epistle side, front, then on the Gospel side, front, then the Epistle side, back.

✠ 1	4 ✠
✠ 3	2 ✠

3. The ministers recite Psalm 50 with the antiphon Aspérget me. The antiphon is doubled.
4. While the Psalm and Antiphon are being recited, Pontifex cum mitra aspergit cum aspersorio de herba hyssopi facto de ipsa aqua tabulam, per ejus circuitum tribus vicibus.

Incensation

1. The stone is wiped clean with a linen cloth.
2. B, without miter says the versicles and then the oration Deus, qui es visibilium.
3. The ministers say the antiphon: Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo, Domine.
4. After the antiphon is begun, B accepts miter and incenses the stone three times, circling it.

Anointing with Holy Oil

First anointing

1. After the incensation, B begins, with the ministers, the antiphon Erexit Jacob. The ministers continue the antiphon and recite Psalm 83, the Glória Patri begin omitted.
2. While the antiphon and the psalm are being recited, B stands with miter, takes some Oil of the Catechumens on his right thumb, and signs the stone five times with clear crosses, in the same manner as before with the water.
3. The same formula is pronounced for each cross as before: Sancti ✠ ficétur, et conse ✠ crétur haec tábula, In nómine Pa ✠ tris, et Fí ✠ lii, et Spíritus ✠ Sancti. Pax tibi.

First incensation

1. B with his ministers begins the antiphon Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo, Domine.
2. While the antiphon is being recited, B incenses the stone, circling it.
3. After the conclusion of the antiphon, B, without miter, says Orémus, the ministers answering Flectámus génua, Leváte. B recites the oration Adsit, Dómine.

Second anointing

1. B begins with his ministers the antiphon Mane surgens Jacob. The ministers continue the antiphon and recite Psalm 91, the Glória Patri begin omitted.
2. While the antiphon and the psalm are being recited, B stands with miter, takes some Oil of the Catechumens on his right thumb and again anoints the stone, as before.

Second incensation

1. B with his ministers begins the antiphon Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo, Domine.
2. While the antiphon is being recited, B incenses the stone, circling it.
3. After the conclusion of the antiphon, B, without miter, says Orémus, the ministers answering Flectámus génua, Leváte. B recites the oration Adésto, Dómine.

Third anointing

1. B begins with his ministers the antiphon Unxit te, Deus. The ministers continue the antiphon and recite Psalm 45, the Glória Patri begin omitted.
2. While the antiphon and the psalm are being recited, B stands with miter, takes some Chrism on his right thumb and again anoints the stone, as before.

Third incensation

1. B imposes and blesses incense.
2. B with his ministers begins the antiphon Dirigatur oratio mea sicut incensum in conspectu tuo, Domine.
3. While the antiphon is being recited, B incenses the stone, circling it.
4. After the conclusion of the antiphon, B, without miter, says Orémus, the ministers answering Flectámus génua, Leváte. B recites the oration Exáudi nos, Deus noster.

Anointing the Confession

1. Having concluded the oration, B with miter takes Chrism with his right thumb and anoints the confession in the middle saying Conse ✠ crétur, et sancti ✠ ficétur hoc sepélcum. In nómine Pa ✠ tris, et Fí ✠ lli, et Spíritus ✠ Sancti. Pax huic domui.

2. B, without miter, places the relics with three grains of frankincense on the stone, or on the altar, and he closes the confession.
3. B stands without miter and says: Orémus. Deus, qui ex ómnium cohabitatióne...

Cleaning the Stone

1. B begins with the ministers the antiphon Ecce odor. The ministers continue the antiphon and recite Psalm 86, the Glória Patri begin omitted.
2. While the antiphon and the psalm are being recited, B with miter cleanses the stone of all the oil.
3. After the conclusion of the psalm, B standing with miter says: Lápidem hunc.
4. B begins the Aedificavit Moyses with his ministers.
5. Afterwards, B standing with miter says: Dei Patris omnipoténtis.

Burning of Incense on the Altar

1. B stands without miter before the altar, with the incense to be burned on the altar, says the versicles and the oration Dómine, Deus omnípotens...
2. B sprinkles the incense with holy water and takes up the miter.
3. With his own hand the B makes five crosses of five grains; each cross is placed over the one of the five spots anointed previously.
4. Over each cross of incense he places a cross of thin candle (taper), to measure the cross of the grains of incense, and the top of each cross is lit, and with the incense it is burnt.

5. All of the crosses having been lit, B without miter kneels before the altar and begins with the ministers the verse: *Allelúia*⁵. V. Veni, Sancte Spíritus...
6. After the versicle is concluded, B stands before the altar without miter and the schola or the ministers sing the antiphons Ascéndit fumus and Stetit Angelus.
7. After the conclusion of the antiphons, B says Orémus, the ministers answering Flectámus génua, Leváte. B recites the oration Súpplices tibi.

Preface

1. After the oration, B, in the same place and with hands extended, reads the preface in the middle voice.
2. He reads the conclusion Per Dominum nostrum... in a lower voice, so it can be heard only by the bystanders.

Find a Title

1. B begins and the schola or the minstiers continue the antiphon Confirma hoc, which is repeated.
2. B reads the oration: Quaesumus omnipotens Deus.
3. B intones the antiphon Omnis terra adoret.
4. B accepts the miter and incenses the altar in the form of a cross.
5. B without miter says oration Descendat, quaesumus.

⁵The Allelúia being omitted if the ceremony take place between Septuagesima and Easter.

Conclusion

1. After the oration the stone is wiped by the ministers.
2. B then prepares himself for celebrating Mass, or the priest who is to celebrate the Mass prepares himself.
3. The Mass is of the day of dedication of an altar.
